

ARTSNEWS

MADIBA MAGIC 'Madiba: Man of Destiny'

is a remarkable photographic documentation of events in and around the life of Nelson Mandela, from the late 1950s to the present. The exhibition runs until 17 July at Iziko SA National Gallery, Cape Town (021) 467 4660.

6 SCULPTURES

dis-comfort, an exhibition by sculptor Dario Matter at the Erdmann Contemporary in Cape Town. Until 12 August. See www.erdmanncontemporary.co.za or phone (021) 422 2762.

PLAYTIME

'Fresh toys to the list' an exhibition by André Naudé at the University of Johannesburg Art Gallery, Auckland Park (011) 489 2099. Until 27 July.

IT'S GOSPEL

After astounding international success, a performance at Carnegie Hall that was sold out 6 months in advance and a phenomenal US tour, the Soweto Gospel Choir is finally coming home to debut 'Voices from Heaven' on the South African stage for a limited concert series at the Johannesburg Civic Theatre. Book at Computicket.

12

ANY SWING GOES

Nothando Ngubane from the Polka ad makes her stage debut at The Barnyard Theatre at Gateway with In The Mood, which sees the old swing anthems of artists (think Glenn Miller, Count Basie, Frank Sinatra, Ella Fitzgerald and Duke Ellington) given a blast of fresh air with contemporary arrangements.

Show runs until 7 August. For bookings and enquiries, phone The Barnyard Theatre on (031) 566 3045, or visit www.barnyardtheatre.co.za.

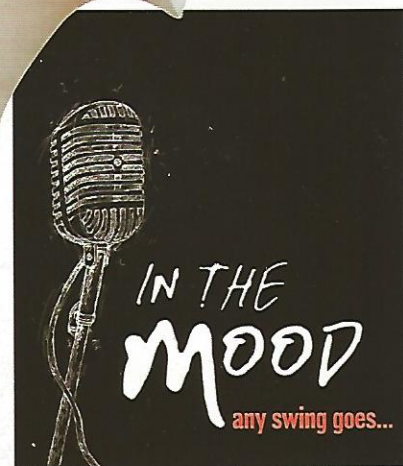

15

'Looking Within', an exhibition of paintings

by Angela Maritz and ceramic vessels

by Astrid Dahl @ re-store,
36 Overport Drive, Berea,
Durban. Ends 6 August.

Enquiries Sam Boylan
(031) 207 5082.

13 DOUBLE TAKE

Painter John Murray and sculptor and printmaker Claudette Schreuders exhibit at Michael Stevenson in Cape Town. Until 13 August. Enquiries (021) 421 2575 or visit www.michaelstevenson.com.

28 PINK FLOYD ROCKS

Don't miss the rock opera The Pink Floyd Experience which pays homage to two of Pink Floyd's biggest selling albums on the Nelson Mandela Theatre stage at The Johannesburg Civic Theatre. Show runs until 21 August. Book at Computicket.

29 IN COLOUR

The annual exhibition of the KZN Branch of the Watercolour Society of SA in the KloofTown Hall. Ends 31 July. Enquiries Colleen (031) 266 0198.

